

Join Us

Become an Advising Member There is no membership fee to join Hindu Education Foundation. As an advising member, you would actively guide, participate and provide your support to the initiatives of HEF. As an active community member, you would encourage more people to understand and be part of the initiatives. please send an email at join_us@hindueducation.org.

Become Part of HEF Team There is no membership fee to join Hindu Education Foundation. As a team member, you would actively participate and take up some of the projects in your local area. You can communicate with other team members and can get support in some of the projects you have taken up in your local area. please contact your state team to involve in any projects. If your state does not have a team formed yet, please send an email at join_us@hindueducation.org with your details so that someone will get in touch with you.

Supporting Organization Organizations are the backbones of the community. As a supporting organization, you would actively encourage your members to participate and take up some of the projects in your local area. Please send an email at orgs@hindueducation.org with your organization details and support letter.